

Unopposed Rohall New Student Senate President

Pete Rohall ran unopposed Dec. 18 to become the new Student Senate president and William J. Vogel III defeated Jan Kehrli as the new treasurer.

Senior class representatives to the Senate are John D. Hertzog and Leroy Miller; junior representatives are Cindy Garber and Jeff Vermuth; sophomore representatives are Cheryl Blosick and James Murphy; and freshman representatives are Gordon Chandler and Joseph T. Scanlin.

Representatives-at-large to the Senate are Keith A. Edleman, Stephen D. Long, Keith A. Brightbill, Daniel F. Murray, Cyndy McDermott, Ruth Ann Bromfield, Diane Alexander and Michael Dries.

Commuter representatives are Jim Ristine, Lance S. Crowl, Brad Ruth, Rich Watson, Jack Piosa, Linda Brubaker, Beth Suttine, Noel Runkle and Dorothy Habecker.

Representatives to the Student Union Board from the Senior Class are Frank Hollenback, Robert Fink, Robert Bowey and Jim Ristine, with a tie between the two write-ins Bob Baldino and Bruce Munshower.

From the junior class are Kent E. Weiss, Patti Pavelic, Carol Larzelere, Dave Robbins and Betty L. Deller.

Sophomore representatives to the Board are Janet Scherzer, Debbie Long, James Miller, Sue Brunner, and a tie between Susan Towner and Cathy Albright.

Freshman representatives are James A. Bish, Robert T. McCowin, Andy Greenawalt, Ed Wagner and Jim Guthrie.

Student Union Board members-at-large are Sanford Kaplan, Gary Bridi, Sandy Souder, Brent A. Hawkins, Shelley Rauhenhold, Valarie Hoffman, Paul Biedeman, Ed Golka, Dan Fichtner and Marha Henkel.

The first meeting of the newly elected Senate members will take place Feb. 5.

Retiring Senate president Jan Hermanns will attend one College Board of Trustees meeting until February, when Rohall will become the official advisory member.