

SCA Names Loux Prexy; Lutherans to Elect Slate

Sophomore Roy Loux was chosen president of the Student Christian Association for next year at the recent election of officers. A cabinet will select a non-succeeding vice president next year.

Serving on the council with Loux will be Carolyn Cramer, secretary; Beatrice Boyd, treasurer; Frances Keefer and Nancy Cunningham, program chairmen; Hettie Peters, music chairman; Christine Jones and Cynthia Snyder, publicity chairman; Betty J. Thompson and Christine Eurich, social chairmen.

Rev. John D. Long, pastor of the Lancaster Church of the Brethren, will speak on "The Life of Christ" at the weekly meeting tonight.

ICG Convention

Sixteen ICG members will attend the State Convention to be held in Harrisburg April 11-13.

The students who will attend are Lillian Mirmak, Dorothy Mitchell, Daryl Fair, Marcia Hoy, Royce Walters, Bill Wolgamuth, Mary Moul, Ned Light, Archie Loss, Mario Sax, Donald Anderson, Carole Stoll, Bill Wasylyk, Ruth Foster, Perry Love, and James White.

F&M Prof To Speak

Professor Robert Mickey, of the religion department at Franklin and Marshall College, will speak at the Social Studies Club meeting Tuesday. His theme will be "The Influence of Dead Sea Scrolls on Modern Biblical Interpretations." This program will be directed by the Ancient History special interest group, with Perry Love, chairman, and Dr. Beck, advisor.

Election of officers for next fall will also take place.

ACEI Tabs Shupp

Sophomore Jerry Shupp was recently elected president of ACEI for next year, according to Betsy Moran, outgoing vice-president.

Others elected were Marie Madl, vice-president; Donna Henrie, corresponding secretary; Miss Moran, recording secretary; Sally Moran, treasurer.

Music Discussion

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilde, choir director and organist, respectively, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will discuss early church music at the meeting of the Lutheran Student Association next Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the church.

Election of officers for next year will also be held then, according to Karen Ely, secretary. Those nominated were Evelyn Klick, Daryl Fair and Nancy Osborne for president;

John Horst, Tom Klinger and Ronald Schlaybaugh for vice-president. Also nominated were Dick Shaeffer, Donna Henrie and Bill Paul for secretary; Phyllis Dolde, Marilyn Shirk and Fred Reinhart for treasurer.

Slate "Quixote" Film

"Don Quixote," a lavish translation of Cervantes' world-famous classic, will be shown by the Xenophile Society next Wednesday in Lyte Auditorium at 8 p.m.

The film, under the direction of Spain's foremost film director, Rafael Gil, contains all the high adventures of the "sorrowful knight," who relives his humorous but sublime "insanity" on the screen.

Tickets will be sold at the door for 75 cents.

Sperling Delegate

Senior Gilbert Sperling was elected delegate to the national convention of Phi Sigma Pi at the chapter's recent meeting. The national convention of Phi Sigma Pi will be held at Warrensburg, Mo., April 12 and 13. Mr. Joseph Torchia, national secretary, will also attend.

The informal initiation of this semester's pledge class will be held on April 15. The formal initiation will be held on April 29 at the Founder's Day Banquet at Brickerville Scheirer near Lancaster.

Schedule Induction

The twelve nominees to Delta Phi Eta, honor society for women, will be inducted into the club at a formal initiation dinner at The Willows next Monday at 7 p.m.

According to Myrtle Nace, club president, every girl who was asked to become a member will join the organization. These girls are seniors Dorothy Lykens and Louise Snyder and juniors Mary Ellen Amole, Mary Ann Chanton, Rochella Cool, Patricia Dean, Mary Gochenaour, Edith Harman, Jennie Pierce, Eleanor Rhoads, Betty Taylor and Mary Yeager.

To Name Officers

The last meeting of Mu Kappa Mu will be held next Monday when elections will be held for next year's officers.

The remainder of the meeting will be occupied with reports on the mathematics convention held in Philadelphia last week which twenty-three students and five professors attended.

Young GOP Meeting

The Young GOP Club will hear State Representative Edwin Eshelman of Lancaster at its meeting tonight.

Mr. Eshelman will speak on education. The meeting will be held in the Women's Day Room at 7 o'clock.