

ΑPO Sponsors Ugly Man Contest For Cancer Benefit

Alpha Phi Omega is sponsoring for the second year an Ugly Man Contest on the campus. The purpose of this contest is to aid the drive now being held by the Lancaster County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Each organization on the campus has been asked to submit a name and sponsor a candidate in the contest. All entries must be in the hands of Alpha Phi Omega officers by today.

Pictures or caricatures of these candidates will be posted and students may vote for the "Ugliest Man". It will cost a penny to cast a vote and students may vote as often as they wish. Elections will be held on May 7, 8, and 9. These pennies will be donated to the Cancer Fund in Lancaster.
